

Addendum to the price bid and the binding order

Acceptance of the price bid/ the binding order you agree with:

1. The general conditions of the price bid

- The price bid works out an after physical reconnaissance of the components
- The price bid contains a preliminary calculation of the individual components
- The price bid is sent you by email. If you ask, it is possible to send you the bid by post too.
- The part of the price bid is an annex with photos of the components
- Time scope for working-out the price bid is about 6 – 10 weeks, from the day when we take over the components
- The price bid is not binding

2. The general conditions of the binding order

- The order become to the binding order after the acceptance of the price bid
- When you accept the order you are obligated to collect your components till 4 weeks from the notification of completion your order
- The delivery note is 3 months from the day of the order acceptance (if we won't arrange an another delivery time)
- The storage time of the complete component is 4 weeks from the day of sending a notice about the completion of your order

3. Preferential equipment of the binding order

- After an agreement with the firm's owner is possible to preference the order
- For an immediate conclude of preference order is necessary to pay 50% from a total price
- After the adjustment of addendum both sides agree, including the payment and dispatch conditions

4. Delivery and transportation

- Personal collection- at the address M & G Classic Chrome & Cars, s.r.o. during week (workdays) from 7:00 am to 4:00 pm and during weekend – on Saturday from 7:00 am to 12:00 am, for the collection during non-working days is necessary to inform the firm's owner one day before.
- The Post –the postage and the packing pay the customer, we aren't responsible for any losses, which become during the transport
- Personal delivery – after an agreement with the firm's owner + transport surcharge

5. Penalties and fines

- If commissioned parts are not collected in 4 weeks after a job completion notice has been issued, the final price will be raised by 10% every week for a period of 8 weeks. After this period your goods become our property. After this period we are authorized to treat the goods as we wish.

6. Damages resulted during transportation

- M & G Classic Chrome & Cars, s.r.o is not responsible for any losses, which become during the transport

7. Warranty

- 12 months warranty applies on all chrome plated parts and covers all defects which may occur during the chrome plating process.

Warranty begins on the day of collecting.

Thank you for your cooperation. We do appreciate your interest in our services and we believe that you will come back to us again, share your satisfaction with your friends or deal with us if not satisfied.

The whole team of the company
M & G Classic Chrom & Cars s.r.o.
www.classicchrome.eu,
info@classicchrome.eu